

INDIAN TRADE CREDIT INFORMATION BUSINESS

RTI

RTI is the best tool to seek any kind of information from Government Office. We can assist you with complete RTI Procedure. You just have to submit the details of information required and document and rest all will be taken care by us.

Who are affected by Right to Information?

If you require any sort of information from a government body, agency or government funded institution.

If you need to enquire about the rules followed by such public authorities, or require statistical information or wish to enquire about the status of an application or project etc.

If you need to know why, who is responsible for the work, and who is responsible for the delay.

Why do you need an RTI Consultant?

An RTI Consultant can assist you draft your RTI Application. A RTI Consultant will be able to better frame the questions listed in your RTI Application which will ensure that you have requested the information in correct manner.

Delay in getting the Information is critical in most of the cases, and correct draft plays a Vital role in RTI process, so we assist individuals with proper drafting and getting responses effectively.

Why Hire a RTI Lawyer / Consultant through Legal Empowerment India LLP.? We have appointed and associated some of the top RTI lawyers across India, to help you draft and get swift and effective response to your RTI queries.

